

Sergio Luis Bortolozzo

Since 1978 Mr. Bortolozzo has been farming cotton, sugar cane, coffee and cattle in Araraquara, São Paulo and since 1988 has been growing grain at his farm in Piauí State. He was a founding member of MAIZALL and was its President in 2016-17.

Mr. Bortolozzo currently holds the following positions:

- President of the Sectoral Chamber for the Corn and Sorghum Supply Chain at the Ministry of Agriculture
- Vice-President of Sociedade Rural Brasileira
- Director of MAIZALL (President in 2015/16)- International Maize Alliance
- Director of ABRAMILHO – Brazilian Corn Growers Association.
- Vice - president of FAEPI – Piauí State Agriculture and Livestock Federation (President in 2018)
- Member of the National Commission of Cereals, Fibers and Oilseeds at CNA - National Agriculture Confederation.
- Titular Counsellor of SENAR – National Rural Learning Service – Piauí State.
- Counselor of the State Council of SEBRAE – Piauí State.
- Chairman of the BOMEPI - Commodity Exchange of Piauí State.

Mr. Bortolozzo has held the following positions previously:

- Member of the Cotton Technical Committee - APHEF - Sao Paulo State Agriculture Federation-1978/1982.
- Member of Sao Paulo State Agricultural Council representing the city of Araraquara – São Paulo - 1982/1986.
- Vice - president of the Rural Union of Araraquara – São Paulo - 1986/1990
- Director of Coffee Growers Cooperative - COCAD –São Paulo - 1984/1988
- President of Sindigrãos – Piauí State Grain Producers Union, 1990/1994
- President of the Uruçuí Rural Union, Uruçuí, Piauí State.
- Coordinator of Piauí State Agriculture Chamber