

GUSTAVO IDIGORAS

Bachelor of Political Science, Master of International Relations, and Master of Business Administration in Belgium.

- President of the Science Oil Industry of Argentina Chamber and the Cereal Exporters Center
- Director of agrobusiness consultancy B.I.M.
- Postgraduate Professor of the UBA and UNTREF.
- Principal investigator at GPS (Group of Southern Producing Countries).
- Director of the Center for Agri-Food Studies of the National University of Lomas de Zamora,
- Director of the WTO and IDB programme to train health services in Latin America and the Caribbean
- He has been an Argentine government official for 17 years as an international negotiator representing the country before the EU as Agriculture Minister-Counsellor in negotiations with MERCOSUR, China, USA, EU, etc.
- He has diverse publications on global food trade issues.